

Film	Which bit?	What is it good for?
Dead Poets Society	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Carpe Diem at the beginning</li> <li>• "Rip" section</li> <li>• Jumping off the desk</li> <li>• Funny walks in the quadrangle</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Seize the day, What is education really about?</li> <li>• The principles of assessment. Good teaching</li> <li>• seeing things from a different perspective</li> <li>• Everyone is different</li> </ul>
La vie est bella (Life is Beautiful)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Beginning, a Jew in Rome</li> <li>• 1/3 way in, prison barracks</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Absence of prejudice</li> <li>• We hear what we want to</li> </ul>
Educating Rita	2/3 way in, Rita comes back from her course	The learner outgrows the teacher
Master &amp; Commander	2/3 way in, conversation between Doctor Stephen and the Master	The nature of Leadership (one view!)
Full Monty	½ way, an attempt to teach them to dance	Recruit the learners themselves, and their ideas, if you want them to learn something
Chicken Run	The bit in the shed where they are trying out the catapult with the turnip.	Trying different ways of doing things and not giving up if it doesn't work at first
Ground Hog Day	Choose any scene that shows repetitive nature	metaphor for how we can live our lives day to day with no significant change
Don Juan de Marco	Scene near start where psychiatrist talks Juan off roof top by pacing him (entering his map of the world)	whole movie is marvellous comment on the map is not the territory.
Truly Madly Deeply		Romantic comedy that also conveys in metaphor how the mind holds onto the deceased loved one
Good Will Hunting	Second meeting of psychiatrist and Will	Explains the difference between a 'declarative' and a 'functioning' knowledge of life and love.
It's a Wonderful World	Where Clarence, George Baily's Guardian angel, jumps into the river to save George from suicide.	Living an 'ordinary' life to your values and principles has a ripple effect. (Thanks Jonas Miller)
The Doctor	Scene when surgeon has his students undergo themselves the investigations they order for their patients	Insensitive surgeon changes perspective when he develops cancer.
One Flew over the Cuckoo Nest	Whole movie about life in a mental institution	Abuse of power
The Big Chill, The Accidental Tourist, Grand Canyon	Films of Lawrence Kasdan	Human relationships
David Copperfield	Scene when David is told of Mother's death	Stimulus to discuss the who, when and where of breaking bad news.
Mr Deeds Goes to Town	A bit at the end of the original film	About personal responsibility and integrity
Bambi	There's the bit where bambi learns to walk with the aid of "thumper" .....	.....his mentor
When a Man Loves a Woman	The section where she arrives home drunk and hits her daughter and then collapses in the shower	The effect of alcoholism on families
The Sea Within	The whole movie	Euthanasia and personal choices in a man with a cervical spine injury – ethical issues
Dirty Pretty Things	The whole movie	Regugee doctors. Organ transplants and organ sales
Tuesdays with Moori		Teaching about death and leadership
Only Fools and Horses Series 6	Del Boy visits the doctor	Diversity and cultural misunderstanding

Red Beard – Akira Kurosawa	Bit where the new young doctor thinks he can “understand & save” the young female patient with mental health problems	Taking advice from wiser more experienced colleagues
Iris	The whole movie.  About Iris Murdoch and her husband and their struggles with her dementia based on his book.	Dementia and it’s effects on the patient and the family
A Beautiful Mind	The whole movie.  Vivid portrayal by Russell Crowe of a top scientist who develops schizophrenia	Schizophrenia, mental health disease & its effects
Vera Drake	The whole movie	Abortion – illegal abortion and ethical issues around abortion