

Ideas Are Perceptions

The Mind Is/has An Eye

Thinking Is Examining

- 1 Let's take a closer look at that proposal.
- 2 He puts my ideas under a microscope.
- 3 He held it up to scrutiny.
- 4 She examined it closely.
- 5 He wanted to see all sides of the issue.

Understanding Is Seeing

- 1 Can you shed more light on this issue? I don't quite see what you are talking about.
- 2 He spotlighted the issues that were important.
- 3 She finally opened her eyes to what was going on around her.
- 1 He still has the illusions of his youth.
- 2 He sees only what he wants to see.
- 3 He's not seeing things clearly.
- 4 The situation was going on under his nose, but he didn't realize it.
- 1 I was in the dark for a long time.
- 2 My early training had put blinders on me.
- 3 I'm just in a fog today, I don't know what is going on.
- 4 She walks around blindfolded.
- 5 His eyes are closed to everything around him.
- 1 He saw through her lies.
- 2 He could see what was behind my actions.
- 3 He has eyes in the back on his head.

Communication Is Showing

- 1 See, you just have to look at it this way.
- 2 Look out for tricky spots.
- 3 Just look at what I'm trying to show you.

- 1 The Watergate cover-up.
- 2 He put up a good front.
- 3 He put on an act to hide his true motives.
- 4 Every spy needs a good cover.
- 1 They purposefully left me in the dark regarding that point.
- 2 He's deliberately clouding the issue.
- 3 They threw up a smoke screen of lies.
- 4 They obscured the issue.
- 5 She blinded me with claims of innocence.
